Today’s News Special –

Sartre and Foucault argue that the actual analysis of statistics and perhaps even economic statistics is about the poor and the elite and this then is a cross-section.

Now I articulate this to Slavoj.

One poor agitator in underdeveloped parts of France then in fact corresponds to a unit in working class politics with PCF and this corresponds to wealthy living elites and like this the process is simple ideological and should be a anamorphic image of this type.

Now just see the process develop into archives

Many archives of history.

I mean mix it into jazz music as well.
